BIOGRAPHY

Spryze is a rising electronic music artist known for high-energy, crowd-driven sets that fuse melody, tech, bass and powerful vocals into a dynamic club and festival experience.

His sound moves confidently between melodic house, bounce and peak-time techno, designed for maximum impact on the dance floor.

Driven by a family-rooted passion for music and inspired by legendary producers, Spryze began his journey performing in local clubs like: Vier-Sieben, Nachtresidenz, K6 Club, Revolution Nightclub, Fraumanfred and others. During this time he began developing his own productions, EDM remixes and mashups. His sets are defined by strong musical storytelling, precise timing and a natural connection with the crowd.

On stage, Spryze creates an immersive atmosphere in both intimate club settings and large-scale festival environments. Each performance is more than a DJ-set, it is driven by his passion for music and his goal to create an unforgettable experience for the crowd.

Spryze has performed at numerous festivals and events across Europe, including two appearances at an international festival in Poland, with internationally acclaimed artists such as Hardwell, Afrojack, Dimitri Vegas and Lost Frequencies.

He has also performed at the Bottrop City Open Air in Germany, sharing the stage with the producer of "Meet Her At Love Parade" Dahool. Throughout his career, he has also shared the stage with artists like Julian Jordan, Daxson, Sickmode, Mr. Black, Felix Kröcher and Chris Willsman.
